

Any bank making phone calls to me at home seeling their services will be dropped as my bank. No company has the right to invade my privacy at home with phone calls. This is one of the most unwanted invasions into our homes ever allowed by law.

Someone in law making should step forward and put a stop to this wrong doing now. It dosn't matter what the reason for the call telamarketing is wrong.